

My Decisions: What is important in the end.

Marilyn Cobain invites you to consider her latest Short Course: What happens in the End or How do you want your funeral to be.

Marilyn is an experienced Counselling Psychologist, lecturer and facilitator. Over the last 25 years she has lead many short courses within TAFE, Jean Hailes Women's Health, & St Michael's Uniting Church.

She will provide a confidential space for you to consider, learn and decide on the many aspects of end of life & its preparation. Both serious, poignant, intimate and funny, but most of all inspirational.

At the conclusion of the course you will have a document that includes all the official necessities and as much of your personal wishes that will make it your unique statement.

What a joy for you and a relief for your family!!
